

Yanita Puncheva With Her Brother Lyubomir Punchev

The photo shows my two grandchildren: Lyubomir (born in 1970) and Anita (born in 1973) Punchev. The photo was taken in 1990 at Yanita's home in Vidin, hours before her graduation ball, to which she was accompanied by her brother. They are the children of my older daughter Streya Puncheva. The sad thing is that two days after that graduation ball their father Ignat Punchev died unexpectedly. I have two children, whom I love very much. The elder one, Streya, was born in 1949. She graduated from the Chemical Technical School in Vidin. She has been working as a chemist in the local meat processing plant for a number of years. My younger daughter Sheli was born in 1954 and is a construction engineer. Unfortunately, she doesn't have children. Yanita now lives in a kibbutz. She has a daughter, Viara. She has a family in Northern Israel. My grandson Lyubomir, who is the director of Bulbank in Sofia, also has children. They are Konstantin Punchev and Mihaela Puncheva.
