

Envelope Of Magazine The Beraha Family Received

This is the envelope of some magazine that used to be delivered to our house in the 1940s.

This was when we were living in Athens, on Solonos Street. It is a French magazine as my family had been raised within the French traditions.

Both my parents had attended Alliance schools back in Thessaloniki.