

Anna Ivankovitser's Grandson Semyon Korenblum In The Jewish Cemetery

My grandson Semyon Fisher with other schoolchildren from a Jewish school in front of the monument to the Jews, who were victims of fascism. Leiman, the chairman of Hesed in Chernovtsy is telling the children about the history of the ghetto in Chernovtsy. Semyon is standing beside him. Semyon is the son of our elder daughter Polina. Polina was born in 1957. She graduated from the music school and then attended the Musical Pedagogical College. Polina married Mihail Korenblum, a Jew, in 1978. He is an engineer. He graduated from the Polytechnic University in Lvov. Their daughter Faina was born in 1980. Faina is a medical nurse at the military hospital now. Semyon was born in 1987. He has finished the 9th grade at the Jewish school in Chernovtsy. He will continue his studies in Israel. Polina worked at the kindergarten for 8 years after finishing college. After this kindergarten was closed, she got a job as a librarian at the Jewish school. That's where she works now.
