

Anelia Kasabova With Her Aunt Zelma Avramova And Her Cousins

This picture was taken in Sofia in August 1948 and here you can see from left to right: my aunt Zelma Avramova, nee Elazar, my cousins Josef Avramov, Nisim Gadol and me, and in the background are David Albelda and Ester Avramova. Ester and her brother Josef are the children of my aunt Zelma, Nisim is my aunt Paola's son and David is aunt Lunna's son. My cousin David is a very famous lawyer in Tel Aviv, Josef is a very good doctor and Nisim married a French woman and lived in France for some time, then he got divorced and went back to Israel. He has already died. My cousin Ester went to live in the USA after she had lived in Israel. Her husband was a driver for a bus transport company in Israel and he became a guide there later and then they left for the USA.
