

Marika Krpez's Cousin Eva Bohm

The picture was taken in Subotica in 1934. My aunt Klara's eldest daughter, Eva Bohm, is pictured. My cousin Eva was born in 1930 in Subotica. She was very skinny and sick as a small child. Some time between 1938 and 1939, she went for treatment at a sanitarium on Fruska Gora, a mountain near Novi Sad. She had tuberculosis. Unfortunately, in 1944 she was taken together with her younger sister Ana and her mother Klara to Auschwitz where they were killed. Her father Eugen Bohm was in the Mauthausen camp and survived the war.
