

Lucy Arimovicz

This photograph shows my sister Lucy. I'm assuming that the photo was taken around the year 1950 in Paris. During the war Lucy hid with her boyfriend, Josef Arimovicz, and our parents at one farmer's place near Sered. The men were hidden in the barn under some hay, and my mother and sister were hidden upstairs in the house, under the roof. After the war she married her boyfriend. In the 1950s they emigrated via France to Israel, where they live to this day.