

Rita Razumovskaya With Her Niece Elena

This is a photo of me Rita Razumovskaya together with my friend and niece at once, Elena Heifetz, the daughter of my sister Galina. It was taken in 1990s, while she came to visit. It was taken in St. Petersburg in our apartment.

I have two sisters: Galina and Irina, I don't get on with Galina, but I'm a big friend of Elena, she is the daughter of my sister Galina. She lives nearby, not far from us; she has a daughter and two grandchildren, which means that Galina is a great-grandmother already.

I love to cook and invite guests. I like matzah and other Jewish meals. My children also like matzah, eat it with pleasure, of course, they know it is some kind of Jewish food. Food was the only thing among all traditions, which we knew and observed. I cooked gefilte fish very well; some time ago my pal taught me how to cook 'kichelach', which are Jewish cookies, so I even bake Jewish cookies at home.
