

Nico And Rosy Saltiel With Their Friends Ino And Flora Michael

This photo was taken on the island of Thasos, during the Easter holidays of 1957. I am standing first from the right. Second from the right is my wife, Rosy. Together with us is another couple, Ino and Flora Michael.

We used to hang around a lot with Ino and Flora. Flora was a classmate of Rosy's. It so happened that we married on the same day and we went for our honeymoon to Vienna together. We had a lovely time, free of cares, very nice. We stayed there for more than 25 days.
