The IIC class of the gymnasium in Subotica. Among the students seated on the ground, third from the left, is Imre Rozenfeld, my mother's brother. The picture was taken in 1935 in Subotica.

The Rozenfeld family was formally observant of the Jewish religious practices. A typical Neolog (Conservative) family, they kept kosher at home and observed the holidays.
