

Florentin Moris

This is me in 2004 in Abano, Italy, where we go almost every year for a few days in August. When we go my wife has mud baths and I swim in the swimming pool for half an hour every day. Normally we are not dressed in suits but on Thursday nights the Hotel organizes 'soiree de gala,' where they ask that we dress more formally. We always have a nice time and I can't wait to go.
