

Ema Levi With Her Daughter Mariola

This is a picture of my daughter Ema Levi with her second-born daughter, Mariola. The picture was taken in Sofia in the 1970s. My daughter got married early, gave birth to two children, yet her marriage failed. She did not work at that time; she only took care of her children. My first granddaughter's name is Teodora. My daughter Ema was born in 1952. She graduated from high school in Sofia, she got married early and she devoted herself to looking after her children. She was married twice and has three children. She has two girls from her first marriage, Teodora and Mariola. The older one, Teodora, went to Switzerland in the 1990s and currently lives there. She is dealing with interior design. The other one got married in Sofia and has a very successful marriage.

She is expecting a baby now. My grandson's name is Borislav, he is finishing high school and playing basketball in the Jewish organization's team in Sofia. My daughter is currently dealing with a real estate agency.
