

Gathering Of Relatives In The House Of Buena Mois Cestnik

This is a gathering of relatives in the house of my daughter, Buena Mois Cestnik, nee Yulzari. The photo was taken in 2000 in Ruse.

From right to left are: my son-in-law Cestnik and next to him is his daughter and my granddaughter Irena, my daughter's daughter. I am next to Irena and next to me is Shelly Beniesh, my niece from Tel Aviv, Israel, the older daughter of my brother Samuel Sinto Beniesh. My brother died in Tel Aviv in 1992. His younger daughter's name is Michal. She is not on the picture. My daughter Buena Cestnik, nee Beniesh, is sitting next to Shelly. My granddaughter Stela with the dog in her arms is sitting between Shelly and to the right is my grandson Mois, Sinto's son, who is Stela's brother.

At present both my brother's daughters Shelly and Michal live in Israel together with their families. We still keep in touch. They came to visit us and I visited them twice - first in 1959 and the second time was in 1960. I have never had any problems concerning political matters or any other problems connected with my trips to Israel or keeping the relationship with the nearest and dearest.
