

On An Excursion

This is on an excursion somewhere in Rila, with my parents and a group of other people. I am the little girl. He is in his white overall.

They used to send groups of employees to a holiday house in Samoranovo village in Rila Mountain. The doctors who went together with those groups had the right to take their families together with them. So for 2 or 3 consecutive years we went there on vacation. We liked it very much to do marches in the mountain.
